The statement is made that four out of five of McLaurin's colleagues in Congress, Messrs, Stokes, Strait, Latimer and Wilson, sought his defeat.

The pension swindle is at last striking terror to the hearts of some good Northrn folk. Nobody objects to fair pensions deserving and needy Federal soldiers, but the robbers must go.

Yellow fever has made its appearance at Cosan Springs, Miss., where there are over seven hundred cases. Great alarm is felt at New Orleans, Mobile, Montgomery and the Texas seaboard cities. Rigid quarantine laws are being made effective

The Republicans are disturbed over the situation in Ohio. Mark Hanna's agents have just completed a canvass of the State and their figures show that the Democrats will not only elect their Governor, but will secure a majority in the Legislature, unless great changes occur between now and November. After October 1st Gov. Ellerbe will practically do away with the constabu lary. Only a few will be retained to work. in the rural districts and the enforcement of the law in towns and cities will rest with the municipal authorities. The constabulary force cost the State $52,036.66 last year, and hereafter that expense will be largely saved.

John Gary Evans has formally severed his connection with Tillman's coat tail. In an interview he said that he was defeated by Tillman's influence, the combined conservative press and the lack of backbone in the Administration. He said that the personal charges made w against him by McLaurin would be attended to hereafter.

The cotton recipts of Anderson are always an item of interest. Anderson justly prides herself on being one of the largest and best cotton markets in South Carolins, and every year the number of tales of the fleecy staple received here are counted with interest by the citizens. Our cotton dealers expect a large increase in the receipts this year. The State Democratic Executive Com mittee met in Columbia last Friday night and officially declared the result of the primary election for United States Senstor. The total vote cast was 45,860, of which McLaurin received 29,326, Evans, 11,372, and Irby, 5,159. This gave Mc-Laurin a majority of 12,792 over Evans and Irby. Mr. McLaurin was, therefore delared the nominee of the party.

Evans made the statement that Col. bar and is an old-isshioned Southern Penitentiary, had taken the Keeley cure and ought to be in the Penitentiary instead of over it. The latter, especially, is a serious charge, and Col. Neal cannot af-ford to impose it. Col. Neal filled the poford to ignore it. Col. Neal filled the position he now holds under Evans' Administration, and if he is guilty of any crime the people should know it. Col. Neal should make Evans substantiate or retract to build the Black Diamond Railroad to

One of the best representatives of the negro race, as well as one of the most sensible, delivered an address in Washington, D. C., recently, in which he gave some sound advice to the negroes. Amongst other things he said: "The best friend of the Southern negro is the Southern white Democrat. I assert that negro labor in the South is better paid, better treated and better fed than labor of the same grade in the North. I am firm in the conviction that the salvation of the colored race lies in making strong friends of those white Democratic neighbors and employers." This is good sense. This man is of the Booker Washington type, who has realized that the only salvation of the negro lies in his disposition to be guided by the white men amongst whom | the dispensary is concerned. General Roy Stone, of the Agricultural Department, whose specialty in the service of the Government is the improvement of the public highways, has compiled a great amount of data relative to the construction of the public roads in various parts of the country. Under his direction, during the past year, there ! have been sent out several thousand circulars to various county and State officlais, asking for information ,as to the cost and maintenance of various forms of constructed highways. The answers and the conclusions reached have been sent out to the county officials over the country. In a certain sense they are among the most important documents issued from the Department, since they will undoubtedly have a great influence in the building up and improvement of the public highways. These reports may be had by application to the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

A special dispatch from Laurens says: In a short talk with Col. Irby he was asked, "What have you to say about the recent primary?" To which he answered: "I have nothing to say except that Tillman, pretending to be 'hands off,' has sneakingly come into the State and knifed me to the fat. I made Tiliman what he is to day. I never asked his support, and did | cess would be had in the enforcement of not expect it. I gave him credit for being truthful when he said he was 'hands off.' Prohibition or "Packages."

The better class of the people of South Carolina are weary of the litigation, the turmoil and strife which have succeeded the establishment of the dispensary system of selling liquor within our borders and their hearts yearn for peace and rest Many loyal people approve of the dispen-sary system, but condemn the management, and deem it, as it is to-day an unholy outrage. The dispensary has never vet been run on an economical plan, and the goods handled have never been sold at fair prices. Everyone who has drank liquors knows this. One can buy better quors for less money in Charlotte or ugusta than at one of our dispensaries there is no honest reason why this should be so. The dispensary management alone is responsible for the imposition It is but natural, then, that people rebel Bind tigers are thus encouraged. These are watched, caught and punished. The order business has been persecuted and prosecuted, and original package stores are the result. These are hampered, and though the Courts sustain them they are burdened with costs of litigation. The original package stores are here to stay, in our opinion, as long as the dispensary stays. The dispensary law has created more litigation than any other cause we know of, and we are no nearer the end now than we were at the beginning. The people are tired of it, and they want rest from the strife. If the matters pertaining to the sale and use of liquors in the State cannot be set at rest, then may the coming Legislature pass a law giving us prohibition pure and simple. In the meantime the people "pay the fiddlers," while the music goes on.—Prosperity

We believe that on the two wears of buggies just shipped you will have cause to congratulate us upon the elegant finish and splendid style of the goods; yet, the greatest and most important feature of these buggies is the quality of material used throughout consisting of the best wheels that money can buy, with Rims all screwed on each side of spoke; 'the Bodies are hand made, and the shafts are xxx grade, which is the highest made; trimming material is strictly No. I. leather, and they are all equipped with Spring Cushions and the latest and most comfortable Lazy Back ever devised for Open work. As heretofore, our written Guarantees for each Buggy were mailed to you under seperate cover, and no doubt they have reached you ere this. Your contract is the largest we have in the South. You displayed excellent judgment in contracting for so many vehicles; thus giving you the lowest possible price and enabling you to offer these high grade buggies at prices heretofore made on cheap grades. We desire to express our thanks for the confidence placed in us and can assure you that we will endeavor to merit a continuance of your valued patronage by steadily improving the quality of our work, if such a thing is possible. This course, as you know, pursued by us in the past, has enabled us to maintain the lead as Carriage Manufacturers. Yours truly,
